"The Woodrow Wilson Film-Memorial was the first motion-picture ever presented in our Church, and it was only because of the character and message of this film that we were willing to make an exception in this case. We were much pleased with the picture and all, regardless of party affiliation, expressed their appreciation and approval. The Church was filled. Rev. L. J. B. Tabor, Director, Religious Education."

You have chosen an excellent method of perpetuating the Memory of our great President who sacrificed his life in an effort to perpetuate the ideals for which we entered the World War. Woodrow Wilson will live among the Immortals, and, through the medium of the Film-Memorial, future generations will have the privilege of knowing him as he was in real life. I wish to congratulate you on your achievement in assembling this picture, showing the high-lights in the career of the one man who will live in the hearts of his people long after all contemporaries have been forgotten. I trust that this picture shall have the widest possible showing. It is fortunately free from anything of a partisan nature. Rev. Dr. C. C. Emmons."

Professor W. S. Ament, Pomona College, Claremont, Cal.

"The Woodrow Wilson Film is a historical document of first-rate importance, recording, as it does, the personality and career of President Wilson from his first inaugural until his death. The passing of time will only make the film of greater historical significance. Besides showing the pageant of the public parades, ovations and events in which President Wilson took part, the film depicts the inspiring personality and tragic breakdown of President Wilson himself."

Parent Teachers' Association, John Marshall High School, Pasadena, Cal.

"In work of the Parent-Teachers' Association it is always a joy to feel that we are promoting education, but there is an added joy when we add to our treasury in doing so, which was true when you brought the Woodrow Wilson Film-Memorial to us, because it enabled us to add a substantial sum to our treasury and at the same time provide our patrons with the choicest of evenings."

Grammar School, Wasco, Cal.

"May I express my deep appreciation of the Woodrow Wilson Films which you recently exhibited in our Grammar School. Their strictly educational and historical value serves to keep alive in the minds of the citizens and especially the young, the great events in which President Wilson was the leading actor, and the moral and unselfish stand America took in the great catastrophe of the World-War. E. S. Fogg, M. D."

University of Oregon, Eugene, Ore.

"I am glad to say that the presentation of the Woodrow Wilson Film Memorial in the Central Presbyterian Church of Eugene, two evenings, was entirely satisfactory. I was impressed first of all with the fine courtesy manifested and the determination to do the job efficiently. The pictures were remarkably clear—far and away the best presentation I ever saw of motion pictures outside a regular picture-house. And the films were of absorbing interest and brought Woodrow Wilson and all the great events in which he was so conspicuous a leader before the audience in a way that deeply moved everyone. I heartily commend this film. Rev. Dr. Bruce J. Griffen."

They show one of the greatest periods of history and are therefore of educational and historical value. In the way in which they are being presented, with all propagandistic purposes left aside, they are of particular value to any community that has the privilege of seeing them. Rev. Chas. F. Seitter." (Republican).

I consider the occasion to have been a real religious experience. It was good for the people to have seen such a presentation of the actual life of our beloved War President. It was good for the Church and the community in this way to keep fresh in mind the cost of the war, as represented in him who truly and heroically gave himself for the best life of the nation. It was a privilege to have the film. It would be a privilege to have it again. May I add a personal word concerning the two representatives sent with the Film-Memorial? "I was deeply interested in the Woodrow Wilson Films shown in our High School Auditorium a few nights ago. They are educational, historical, non-propagandistic, and filled with inspirational value. The trip we made with Woodrow Wilson to Europe was simply wonderful and the closing scenes of his life most sorrowful. Every high school pupil should see these films and no good citizen should miss them."

J. Harvey McCarthy, Carthy Center, Los Angeles

"Irrespective of political conviction, every American citizen should see the Woodrow Wilson Film-Memorial which you showed with such gratifying success at Amanda Chapel. "The Woodrow Wilson Film-Memorial drew a good sized audience at the Presbyterian Church a few weeks ago, and all who attended were more than pleased. I was surprised at the vividness of the films. Every detail was as clear as is usual in first class picture-houses. I was thrilled at some of the scenes and touched deeply when others depicting President Wilson bowed in sorrow were thrown on the screen. I consider the Wilson Film-Memorial a great educational medium."

Hon. William R. Lee, Tacoma, Wash.

"I had the pleasure of seeing the presentation of the Woodrow Wilson Film-Memorial in this city. The pictures were certainly wonderful and well presented. The lesson which they teach should reach the whole of the rising generation, as an effective means of teaching patriotism and appreciation of the great historical figures of the period presented. I hope that we may have another visit by the Film-Memorial to our city."

"The Woodrow Wilson Film was shown in the commodious auditorium of the State Teachers' College before a large and exceptionally attentive and appreciative audience. It is a great picture, highly inspirational and educational, untainted by any suggestion of politics. Whether sitting at the council tables of the great of the earth, or wending his way through the war-devastated regions, acclaimed by the multitudes, it was always the soul of Wilson that stood out in the pictures."

CHURCH COMMENDATIONS

First Christian Church, Pomona, Cal.

"The Woodrow Wilson Film-Memorial was shown at the First Christian Church of Pomona last Sunday evening to a large crowd. The human interest of this wonderful picture gripped the crowd and held the people from the beginning to the end. The great audience was well pleased and we are hearing most favorable comment on every hand. The Film-Memorial is a sermon and its every implication is to keep alive the great ideals of our War-President. Rev. Dr. A. Reid Liverett."

First Christian Church, Salem, Ore.

"The Woodrow Wilson Memorial Society recently presented the Woodrow Wilson Film-Memorial in the First Christian Church at Salem. SOUTH METHODIST CHURCHES

"The Woodrow Wilson Films were shown recently in our Church. They drew more than we could seat. They are a living memorial of the ideals for which Woodrow Wilson stood. We commend them to all who seek the best. Rev. J. A. B. Fry."

Presiding Elder, M. E. Church, South, San Francisco

"No one will regret seeing the Woodrow Wilson Films. They bring the spectator into the presence of one of the greatest men of human history and give a prophetic vision of the day when all nations shall be federated into a universal brotherhood. Rev. S. H. Werlein, D. D."

Spurgeon Memorial M. E. Church, South, Santa Ana, Cal.

"The Woodrow Wilson Film-Memorial was shown in Spurgeon Memorial Church to a crowded house. A hundred or more people were turned away for lack of room. The audience was thrilled by the pictures and frequent applause indicated full appreciation of the man himself. It was necessary to show the pictures again on a succeeding evening, to accommodate the people who were anxious to see them. The house was crowded again at the second showing. I regard the work of the Memorial Society as entirely commendatory and believe that it is doing a real service to the Nation in keeping alive the idealism of Mr. Wilson. His life will have a very great influence among the people where it is understood. The pictures acquaint the people with his ideals and his manner of life. The Society is really keeping alive the high ideals of Mr. Wilson by the distribution of these films. I commend them most heartily. Rev. Dr. Moffett Rhodes."

Fitzgerald Memorial Church, San Francisco

"My people were more than pleased with the Woodrow Wilson Film-Memorial. These are pictures which the most conservative churches should not hesitate to welcome. And I go a step further to urge pastors and leaders of committees to see that they are shown. A very consecrated woman told me that the pictures were a sermon to her, although she was not an advocate of pictures in churches. Rev. Dr. Robert L. Jackson."

St. Paul's M. E. Church, South, San Jose, Cal.

"I consider it an obligation to promote the presentation of the Woodrow Wilson Film-Memorial, because the promotion of this inspiring picture is tantamount to promoting Christianity. Rev. Dr. E. E. Wall."

The work which you and your associates are doing in recalling to the public mind the high ideals and aspirations of Woodrow Wilson, and the self-sacrifice of this great American in the cause of humanity, is an inspiration. It is particularly pleasing to hear local members of both great political parties speaking from the same platform in eulogy of Mr. Wilson. G. O. Griffin, Secretary."

CHURCH COMMENDATIONS

First Baptist Church, Fullerton Cal.

"The exhibition in this Church, recently, of the wonderful Woodrow Wilson Film-Memorial has put us under a debt of gratitude. It imparted to us all a great sympathy with the one who suffered so much in weaving into the warp and woof of history the Christ spirit. Some men have tried to interpret the Christ spirit in industry, but Woodrow Wilson did much to interpret the Christ spirit in international relations. The present generation of young people is fortunate in being able to get such a glimpse of real history through the eye as is given to us in this wonderful film. Rev. Dr. S. Fraser Langford."

First Baptist Church, Reedley, Cal.

"I read with my eyes and heart the life story of Woodrow Wilson presented on the film-page by the Woodrow Wilson Memorial Society at Reedley, California. It was a splendid contribution to the cause of higher ideals and a mighty incentive to loftier thinking. Non-political, it possessed rare educational and inspirational value. It was a payment on the debt of gratitude to one of the mighty leaders of men. I never voted for Woodrow Wilson, but he was my President whom I supported loyally. Removed from the realm of narrow partisanship he belongs to the highest type of American nobility and world leaders. Rev. W. L. Gaston." (Republican).

Central Evangelical Church, Torrance, Cal.

"The Woodrow Wilson Film-Memorial was shown in our Church last evening. It is a wonderful presentation of the life of Mr. Wilson, and no person who sees it can help holding in his esteem the memory of Mr. Wilson just a little more admiringly, can help loving his country just a little more ardently, can help advocating the cause of World Peace just a little more earnestly. It is an All-American picture for all Americans. Rev. Dr. F. A. Zeller."

Amanda Chapel, Rev. W. C. Isett, Los Angeles, Cal.

"To the many splendid testimonials which you must have, concerning the Film depicting the life of Woodrow Wilson, may I add my appreciation of this great historical reproduction, although I am of the opposite political party. Your film vividly shows the price he paid for the great work he did for the world. It seems wonderful to me that so fine a continuity could be arranged to tell this wonderful story. I wish every boy and girl in our country could see the film."

Longview Community Church, Longview, Wash.

"Our people enjoyed the Film-Memorial very much. The message of the Film was that Woodrow Wilson possessed the greatest of all passions which was to give himself in behalf of World-Peace. Believing that it will do Americans good to see this film and hasten the day for a permanent World-Peace, I am yours for success in this worthy cause. Rev. Dr. E. H. Gebert."

Rev. Father T. Rowan, Chicago, Ill.

"I thank you. I greatly appreciated the Woodrow Wilson Films. I wish you all of the success that your good efforts merit."

First Universalist Church, Los Angeles, Cal.

"Whoever conceived the idea of perpetuating the career of Woodrow Wilson in the lifelike form of motion pictures, taken of him while he lived, conceived a truly glorious idea and those who participate in the furtherance of this noble work are doing a great thing for humanity in a very efficient way. Every church and school and worthwhile institution in the land will take very special pride in presenting the Woodrow Wilson Film-Memorial to large audiences of good citizens.—Rev. Dr. C. Ellwood Nash."

First Baptist Church, Gardena, Cal.

"Every American will rush, with pride and great satisfaction, to witness the Woodrow Wilson Film-Memorial, which we are witnessing tonight in our church; and, after having seen these wonderful pictures, he will take pains to send to see them all those in whom he has a friendly interest.—Rev. Dr. Hurley."

NEWSPAPER COMMENDATIONS

Republican Newspaper Endorsements of the Woodrow Wilson Film-Memorial

"Before the end of its first month of presentations the Woodrow Wilson Film-Memorial had been favorably commented upon in the following Republican California papers: Gilroy Advocate, Stockton Record, Manteca Bulletin, Watsonville Register, San Jose Mercury-Herald, Tulare Daily Register, Reedley Exponent, Bakersfield Echo, Lindsay Gazette, Wasco News, Upland News, Ontario Daily Report, Corona Daily Independent, San Bernardino Telegram, Pomona Progress, Pomona Bulletin, Redondo Advance, Redondo Daily Breeze, Santa Monica Daily Evening Outlook, etc., etc."

The Republican, Santa Rosa

"For nearly two hours an enthusiastic audience alternately applauded and wept as it lived over again the thrilling past with its departed leader."

Press-Telegram (Republican), Long Beach, Cal.

"Long Beach turned out in generous numbers last night to honor the visit to the city of Woodrow Wilson. ~~TO THE~~ available seats at the Chamber of Commerce were taken before the illustrious visitor's features appeared upon the screen. Those who were privileged to see the films report that they were comparable only to a visit from the great war leader, himself, so intimately did they depict him in the successive stages of his famous career."

San Jose "Mercury-Herald," Republican Daily, San Jose, Cal.

"As a great and inspiring memorial to the late President, Woodrow Wilson, as well as a splendid film, the picture presented last evening in the auditorium of the Teachers' College pleased everyone. An appreciative audience evidenced by frequent applause its enthusiastic approval of this tribute sponsored by the Woodrow Wilson Memorial Society, Etc."

Watsonville "Register," Republican Daily, Watsonville, Cal.

"Citizens of Watsonville, regardless of political faith, spent last evening with the War-President, Woodrow Wilson. Six reels of historical films, presented at the High School, under the auspices of the Woodrow Wilson Memorial Society, brought a large attendance face to face with their former leader in a series of intimate revelations of the various phases of his illustrious career. From the time of his first inauguration, throughout his triumphs at home and abroad, and down through his siege of illness, until the tomb received his broken body, men and women alternated between applause and tears, as they lived again the past with Woodrow Wilson."

The Press, Santa Rosa, Cal.

"In the very unusual set of films being shown in Santa Rosa the fact is strikingly evidenced that Woodrow Wilson suffered nothing by comparison with the kings, emperors, princes, prime ministers and other dignitaries of Europe during his negotiations with them."

Walter Measday, Journalist, Los Angeles, Cal.

"The Woodrow Wilson Film-Memorial is an historical document of the first importance. I trust that it will be shown in every educational institution in the country, for its value cannot be overestimated. The selection of films you have made, and the matter of arrangement and titling has been most excellently accomplished."

The Unanimous Verdict

Universities, Schools, Churches, Societies, the Press, men and women of big calibre have given it. Leaders who never endorsed any film commend this one. Tested in unfavorable atmosphere, perpetual life is assured to it. Time can only add to its value. Today, for many reasons, it is perhaps the most interesting and most helpful film available. SEE IT—SHOW IT—SECURE IT—SUPPORT IT.

THE WOODROW WILSON FILM-MEMORIAL

PURPOSE OF THE WOODROW WILSON FILM-MEMORIAL™

The Purpose of the Woodrow Wilson Film-Memorial is to "Keep Woodrow Wilson Forever Alive Among His People." The Woodrow Wilson Film-Memorial is Woodrow Wilson himself still with us. Lifeless Monuments of Woodrow Wilson in stone and bronze will be set up here and there to his memory, but the real Woodrow Wilson shall forever LIVE among his people, through the medium of the Woodrow Wilson Film-Memorial, to remind them and to inspire them as no lifeless image can do. No memorial in honor of Woodrow Wilson is so worthy of support as the Woodrow Wilson Film-Memorial.

POLICY OF THE WOODROW WILSON FILM-MEMORIAL

The Policy of the Woodrow Wilson Film-Memorial is Non-Partisan and Non-Propagandistic, as is amply evidenced by its extraordinary testimonials and endorsements from leaders of rival parties and denominations. The Films are obviously educational and patriotic, otherwise they would not so frequently be presented in churches and schools; but they are also highly entertaining.

The Policy of the Woodrow Wilson Film-Memorial is Non-Commercial, in the sense that the films are not exhibited in theatres for mere gain, although, of course, it would be as proper to do that with films of the real Woodrow Wilson as it is to do so with films of the artificial Abraham Lincoln. To profit from films of Woodrow Wilson is as legitimate as to profit from books about Woodrow Wilson. But the Financial Policy of the Woodrow Wilson Film-Memorial is analagous to the Self-Supporting Policy of the Y. M. C. A. The Woodrow Wilson Film-Memorial has been presented in hundreds of schools, churches and humanitarian institutions on terms calculated to make it profitable to those worthy institutions as well as self-supporting. Woodrow Wilson, Churchman and Scholar, would have selected and preferred the schools and churches to be helped by the film-record of his Scholarly, Christian career. The Woodrow Wilson Film-Memorial aims to be self-supporting and self-improving and helpful to schools and churches and humanitarian institutions, by getting itself SEEN, SHOWN and SECURED.

The Policy of the Woodrow Wilson Film-Memorial is Impersonal. The personality of Woodrow Wilson alone is emphasized. No other individuals secure prominence through it. No known or unknown names are advertised by it. Nobody's character save Woodrow Wilson's invites approval.

AIMS OF THE WOODROW WILSON FILM-MEMORIAL

The Primary Aims of the Woodrow Wilson Film-Memorial are to be SEEN, to be SHOWN, and to be SECURED. The incidental Aim is to be self-supporting and self-improving by being SEEN SHOWN and SECURED. By being SEEN, SHOWN and SECURED by as many individuals, schools, churches, societies, clubs and organizations as possible, the Woodrow Wilson Film-Memorial accomplishes its Purpose of "Keeping Woodrow Wilson Forever Alive Among His People."
